Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Sunday 25 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Bright and warm on Monday, a few afternoon showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some late sunshine then clear spells, especially central and western parts but low cloud spreading inland from east coast. Outbreaks of showery rain edge into the far northeast towards dawn.

Monday:
Low cloud in the east becoming confined to the far northeast and Northern Isles. Then the west mainly dry, some afternoon heavy showers in the north and east. Warm.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Much cooler and increasingly unsettled with showers or longer spells of rain, these heavy and perhaps thundery at times.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.